

FAQ

QUESTIONS THAT AREN'T ASKED FREQUENTLY ENOUGH

WHAT KIND OF VENDORS DO WE WANT TO WORK WITH?

Surrounded by family and friends is how you want to remember your day! Dealing with vendors is not. Take the time to find vendors that you enjoy, have conversations with them, ask for reviews from previous clients. Take some time now to get to know them, will feel more than worth it on your big day.

WHEN SHOULD WE HIRE A COORDINATOR?

Often couples will begin planning and wait until there is a felt need to get their coordinator or planner. A good planner can save you significant time and money. By taking on menial tasks and vendor email ping-pong, while also using their network of vendors to keep you from making mistakes. Have the conversation early in the process, don't wait until you feel it.

WHAT IS YOUR WEATHER CONTINGENCY?

While this might seem like a venue specific question, pay attention to how each of your vendors answer this question. No matter how much planning, unexpected circumstances can arise, and knowing that each of your vendors are prepared to roll with events (weather or other) as they happen is important!

ARE THERE ANY RESTRICTIONS WE SHOULD KNOW ABOUT?

Perhaps your vendor doesn't allow additions on the day-of, or your venue is handicap accessible except for certain areas? Just asking this simply question could keep any last minute surprises on your day!

WHAT IS THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN A PLANNER AND A VENUE COORDINATOR?

Wedding planner's works for you to ensure that your dreams become reality. A venue coordinator ensures that the events go off without a hitch (except yours :P) due to problems related to the venue. Remember, a venue coordinator works for the venue and your planner works for you.

ASK, HOW OFTEN DO YOU UPDATE YOUR EQUIPMENT? NOT, WHAT EQUIPMENT DO YOU USE?

This way when your vendor responds "every 2 years." You'll know what their talking about. Rather than spending time googling what the difference is between a Sony AS7 and Canon 5D Mark III.

NOW THAT YOU'VE FOUND YOUR AMAZING TEAM OF VENDORS, LET THEM DO THEIR JOBS
AND YOU ENJOY THE DAY WITH YOUR LOVED ONES! CONGRATULATIONS!